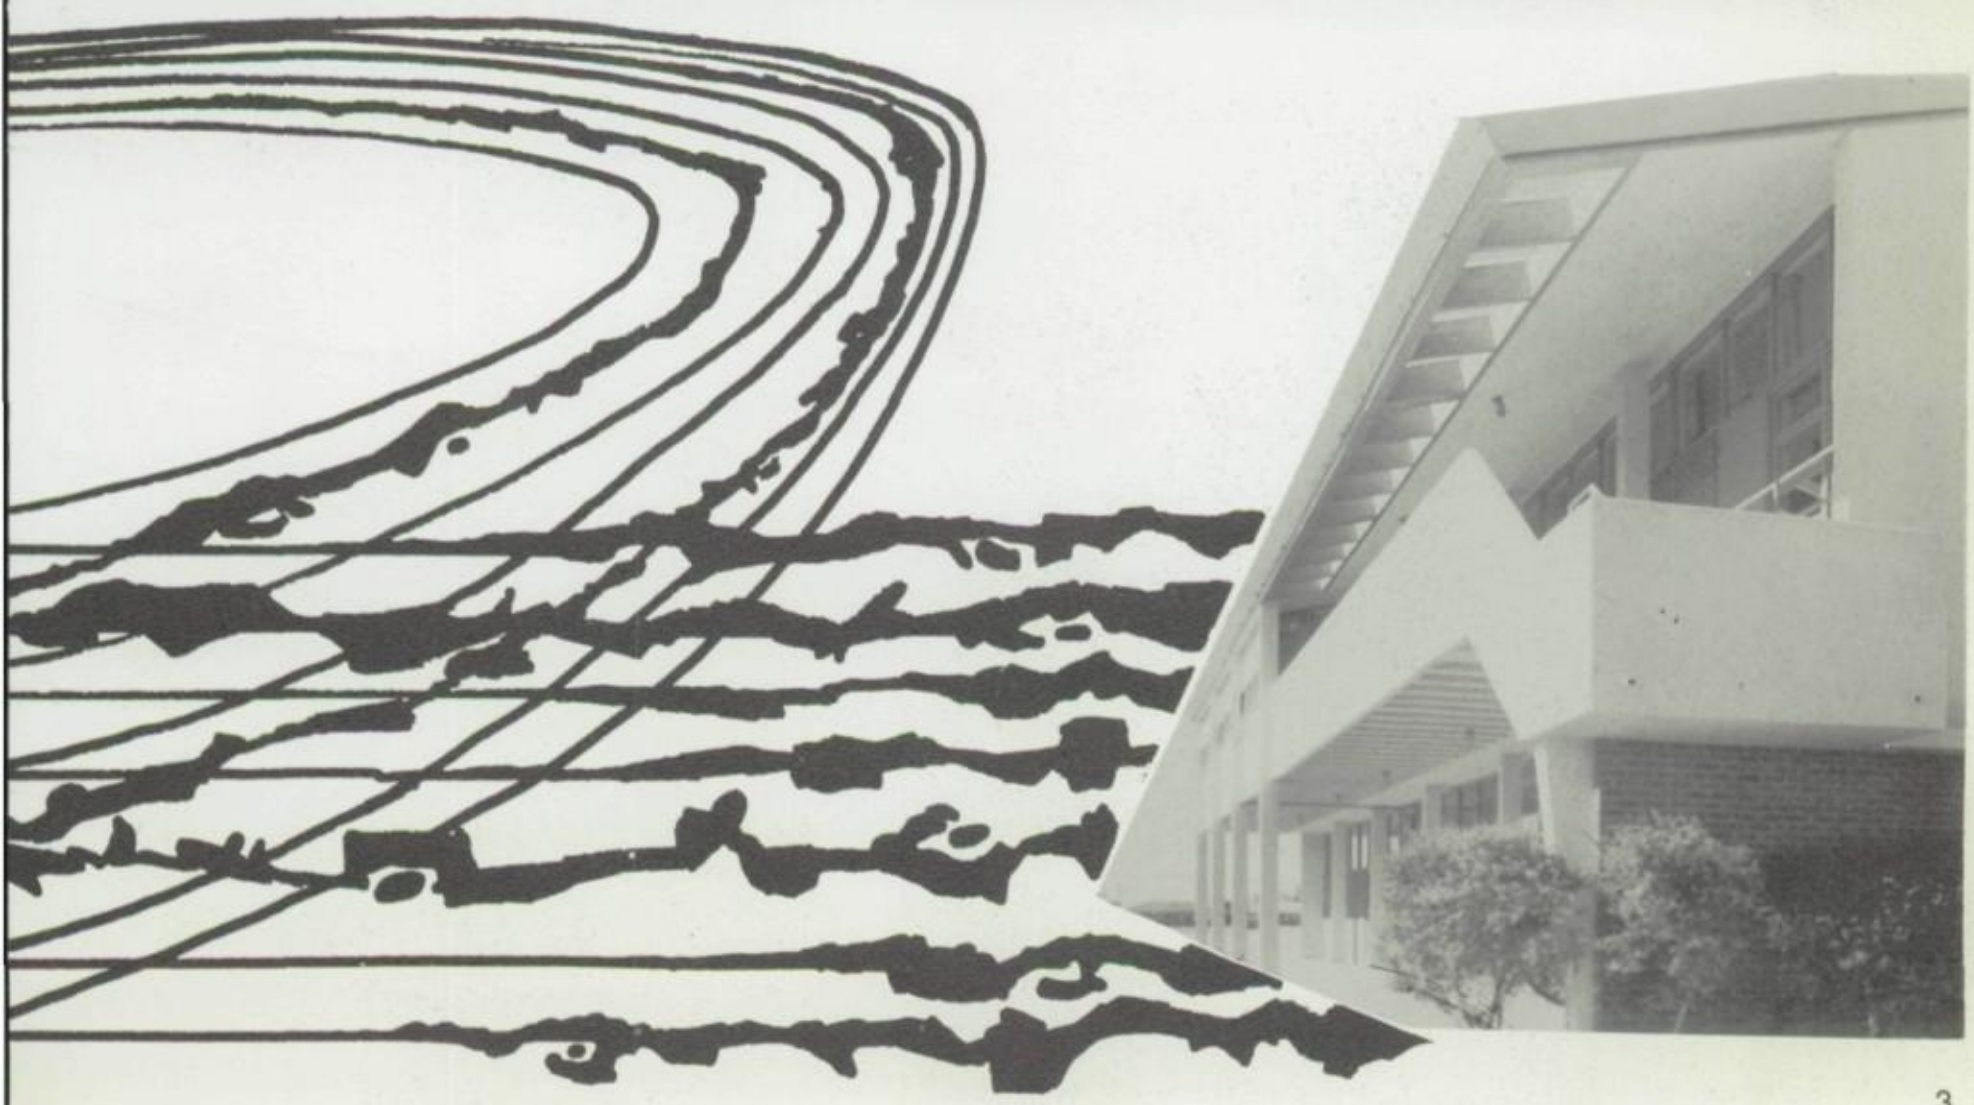
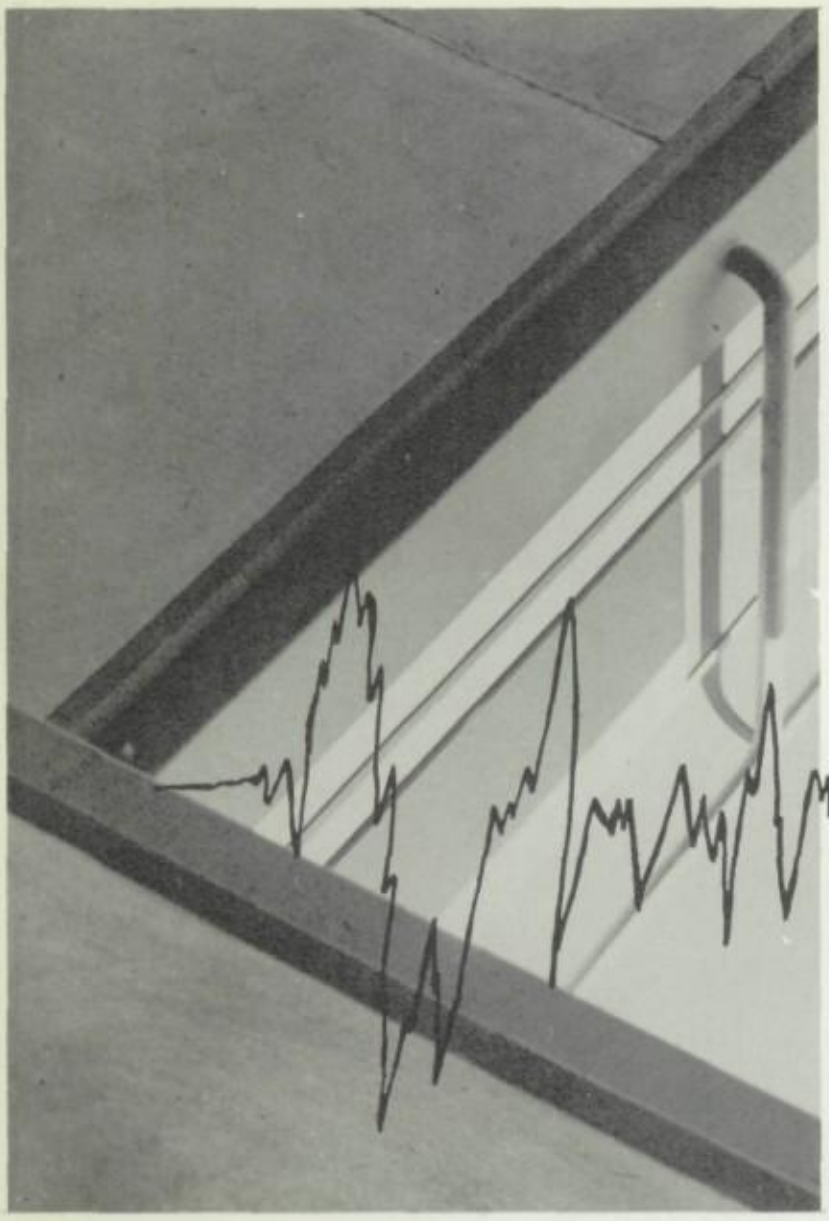
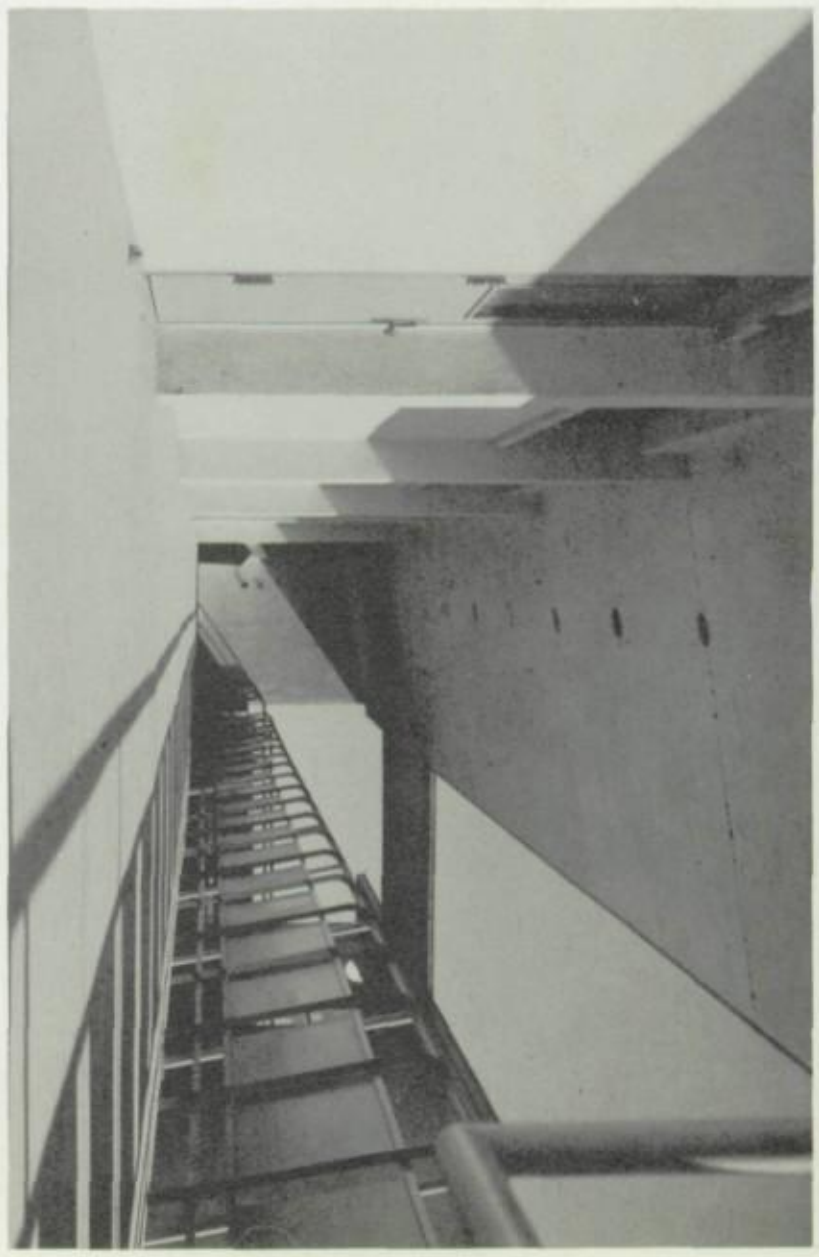
There's a story behind what's written,
And a story behind what's said;
But, though many's the tale that does prevail,
Unsung, they would soon be dead.

So the record that is to follow,
And the story that lies ahead,
May open the eyes and the ears of the world
By what will be heard and said.







Campus

Without seeing a magazine's cover
Or knowing just what it contains,
We'll subscribe to the same if it has a good name
And feel we are using our brains.

What applies to a good publication
We can also apply to West High;
We will say, "It's not new, but it's tried and it's true,
And stands proud in its place in the sky."

annual staff

Raymond,
you've been real swell to know this year. We'll probably have classes together next year. I sure don't. Good luck!

A particular work, in sound or in script;
A poem or story or song,
Has a prolonged effect when its form is correct,
But we know right away when it's wrong.

So that's why the staff is important
In putting together this book;
Whether gloomy or bright, wrong or quite right,
Depends on the effort it took.

The city of Rome was not built in a day,
As we know without even a glance;
Workers may claim that their work will win fame,
But idleness hasn't a chance.

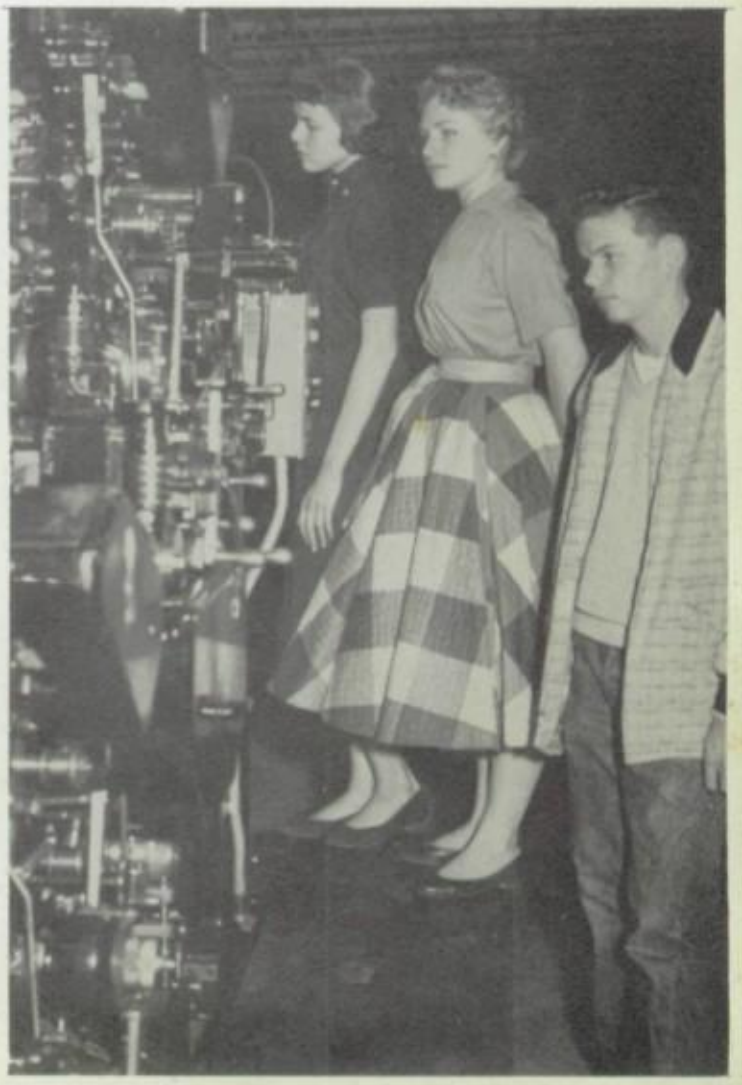
Every part of this book that is right
Took effort, plus scissors and glue,
And if we can attest that we've given our best,
Why, what more can anyone do?

TYPESETTING

DESERT LITHOGRAPHY



The staff always sets down the record
Which was made by each person at West,
And the more that was done, in work and in fun,
Helps make each new record the best.

Since the staff records all that has happened,
Each member must be on the ball,
And work as a team with a singular dream;
To make this the best book of all!

To a real nice guy who's had lots of fun
with in english classes together year too. I wish
all the best in the world.

ADMINISTRATION

"Why, yes, that happened when Henry was King.
That battle was Custer's last stand.
And Sousa's marches forever will ring
From many an excellent band."

We speak of war and speak of peace
In terms of those in charge.
They guide the rest; work does not cease;
Their cares, they find, are large.

We're All A Part of the Record in Student Government

"I am afraid I am too small."
"I never had a chance."
"My name is hardly known at all."
"I don't know how to dance."
"I'm scared when people are around."
"I don't have time to smile."
"Where are the friends I haven't found?"
"I wish I had some style."

If you are one of those who do
Not feel especially gay,
Cheer up! There's nothing wrong with you;
It's what you think and say.
And if you feel so insecure
That you can't even smile,
Get rid of "I," use "you" and "your;"
You'll find it well worth while!
We are all actors on a stage,
And all perform each day.
The leads are few, but on each page
Are other parts to play.
Each one of you, though gay or glum
Cannot evade his cue,
Because, my friends, your time has come;
The stage belongs to you.

PLATTER CHATTER

By GARY WRIGHT

Five hundred forty-three students have lunch permits of which 290 are boys, 253 girls.

GALS 'N LADS HOOF IT AT FHA-FFA HOP

Dancing in the hallowed halls of "West" proved to be loads of fun for Thunderbird Future Homemakers of America and Glendale Future Farmers when they celebrated Valentine's Day, February 14, with a box social sponsored by FHA members from six to ten Home Economics Departments.

Mrs. Margery Short, Mrs. Joyce Gibbons, Mr. Allen and Mr. Bennet, FHA and FFA sponsors, attended.

Howling success: The baby who gets picked up.

Meet The Varsity

Star Gazing

By KAREN GURLEY

Do you agree with the recent article in THIS WEEK magazine concerning a college professor's solution for relieving the overcrowded conditions in college by drastically cutting the number of women students?

ODE TO A SUMMER COLD

A bunch of germs were hitting it up
In the bronchial saloon.
Two bugs on the edge of the edge of the larynx
Were jazzing a rag-time tune.
Back in the teeth, in a solo game
Sat Dangerous Ack-Kerchoo!
And watching his pulse was his light of love
That lady that's known as — FLU.

HOG-TIED! Light jerseyed T-bird ball-carrier is Bob Marsh. End Jim Hold took touchdown passes of 30 and 16 yards to score in the second quarter of the Catalina rumble. Other scores came by runs by Vic Holmes, Larry Nathanson, Larry Walker, and Bob Marsh.

OUT OF BOUNDS! Both sides appear to be picking up the pieces as Joe Romley (No. 10) gazes over the scattered carcasses of the Rebs. Number 19, Vic Holmes, and number 36, Stan Godbehere look on. We clobbered the Confederates 14-0. (But the South shall rise again.)

VICTORY! West finally broke a six-year jinx over Mesa this season by defeating the Bunnies 19-7. Proud team carrying Coach Vern Braasch off the field are from L. to R.: Dick Gulley, Rick Hollenbeck, Ed Martindale, Gordy Higuera, and George Waldmann.

TURKEY DAY GAME

West	7	South	13

BLASTING THROUGH! Plowing through the Badgers' line is West quarterback Bob Marsh. Tucson overpowered us for the second straight year with a 20-12 victory.

MORE OF P.U.! As you can see, it takes more than one coyote to drag down West's Larry Nathanson. Number 40 in background is Bob Williams.

CKLED! That's West back Larry Walker being swept off s feet in the below shot. West romped past the pony-boys th a 34-6 win this year. Guard Wayne Magnusson showed e Mustangs some blocking like they've never seen it. He d our varsity squad in tackles with 14.

GRIT! Both sides appear to be gnashing their teeth as they wait tensely for the ball to come down. West outscored the Cottontails from both the field and free throw line. The 59-38 victory gave us a 6-3 conference mark to tie with Camelback for second place in the AA race.

HOOK! Dick Cunningham displays form as he drops the ball through the net, to bring the score up to a final 48-34 victory over North. Charles Henderson, 6'4" forward, controlled both backboards for West and led an offensive show with 15 points.

Below shot: West romped past the Rebels with a 51-35 victory in the T-bird gym. The second clash with the southerners this season proved to be fatal. What started out to be a tight defensive battle erupted suddenly in the second quarter as South Mountain's Mike Martin passed the Rebels to their first run of the season over previously unbeaten West.

HIGH SCRAMBLE! Scottsdale tied the score 39-39 and were going strong with they lost their center and rebounder early in the fourth quarter. From then on it was easy going for the Thunderbirds. We wrapped up the game with a final 61-54 score.

Above photo: West sank 25 of 37 free shots in this battle with the coyotes. Final score was, West 45; P. U. 39.

I AM THE PRINTING PRESS

By Robert H. Davis

I am the printing press, born of the Mother Earth. My heart is of steel, my limbs are of iron, and my fingers are of brass.

I sing the songs of the world, the oratorios of history, the symphonies of all time.

I am the voice of today, the herald of tomorrow. I weave into the warp of the past, the word of the future. I tell the stories of peace and of war alike.

I make the human heart beat with passion of tenderness. I stir the pulse of nations, and make brave men do braver deeds, and soldiers die.

I inspire the midnight toiler, weary at his loom, to lift his head again and gaze, with fearlessness, into the vast beyond, seeking the consolation of a hope eternal.

When I speak a myriad people listen to my voice. The Anglo-Saxon, the Celt, the Hun, the Slav, the Hindu, all comprehend me.

I am the tireless charion of the news. I cry your joys and sorrows every hour. I fill the dullard's mind with thought uplifting. I am light, knowledge, and power. I epitomize the conquest of mind over matter.

I am the record of all things mankind has achieved. My offspring comes to you in the candle's glow, amid the dim lamps of poverty, the splendor of riches; at sunrise, at high noon, and in the waning evening.

I am the laughter and tears of the world, and I shall never die until all things return to the immutable dust.

I am the printing press.

AUTOGRAPHS

Although an annual is divided into different sections with one or more persons in charge of each, the staff must work toward one particular goal. That goal is a unified production which reflects teamwork, not a jumble of loose parts. Each part, while portraying a certain aspect of its own, must contribute to a central idea.

We find it necessary to keep in mind the story of the Indian who was building a boat.

The Indian was carving his canoe out of a huge log. A man came along and said, "Chief, I think she's too wide for her length." So the Indian narrowed her down.

A little later, another man came along, who said, "Chief, it looks to me that the stern's too full." So he cut down the stern.

A third man came, watched the Indian chisel awhile, and giving the canoe a close look, said, "The bow's too sheer, Chief." So the Indian changed the bow.

When the canoe was finally finished, the Indian launched it in the river, but it capsized. He hauled it back on the beach, found another log and began again. Once more a man came along and offered advice, but this time the Indian answered, "That boat over there — that's everybody's boat," pointing to the monstrosity on the bank. "This one is Indian's boat!"

"I'll soon be dead," the candle said,
"I inch by inch decline,
But I make light of my sad plight,
For while I live, I shine."

An annual staff can be compared to the candle. The staff has approximately seven months to fulfill the necessary requirements in making an annual. This includes scheduling pictures, cutting pictures, pasting pictures down, writing copy, pasting down copy, and traveling innumerable times to the typesetter's and lithographer's.

With good planning this can be done in seven months. However, these activities alone do not make an annual an excellent production. There is an extra element.

The extra element is the ideal represented by the story of the candle: to make the best possible use of what we have. This is an intangible thing, and can really be called a state of mind. It must exist in all the members of the staff. It is as elusive as the factors which give one student body a strong school spirit, but are lacking in another student body.

A feeling of teamwork, a wish to share ideas, a feeling of pride in a job well done: these are essential in producing a school annual.

A staff also needs inspiration. The following poem by an anonymous author could well be the watchword of any staff:

If you think you are beaten, you are,
If you think that you dare not, you don't,
If you'd like to win, but think you can't,
It's almost certain you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you've lost,
For out in the world you'll find
Success begins with a fellow's will —
It's all in the state of mind.
